PAJARO VALLEY SHELTER SERVICES

Pajaro Valley Shelter services shelter is a safe place for single mothers with children who are homeless or fleeing domestic violence. A home where they can have stability to reunify with their children. Time to become financially stable. A safe place to heal emotionally and mentally. A place to receive education and services to improve their lives.

More information about the multitude of services and programs PVSS provides can be found here: <https://www.pvshelter.org/about/>

MONARCH SERVICES

Monarch Services offers immediate crisis response to victims of domestic violence and sexual assault through our 24-hour crisis line, including emergency response to law enforcement or medical facilities, and accompaniment to forensic rape examinations. Support services include emergency shelter for victims of domestic violence or sexual assault and their children, peer counseling, advocacy, information, referrals, drop-in support groups, and assistance with restraining order applications. We also provide community education presentations to schools, community groups and service providers.
